2 The President States that the term of office of all the members of the several Taluq Boards except of Hunsur & Seringapatam has expired

3 The names of the members of the Hunsur Taluq Board were published in the Gazette dated 12th May 1904 and hence their term also has expired

The term of office of the members of the Seringapatam Taluq Board will expire on the 2nd June 1907. But their term also will have expired by the time a fresh notification of the appointment of Taluq Board members issues provided the notification to be issued now is made to appear in the Gazette after 2nd June 1907.

4 Though the term of office of the members under clauses (f) (g) and of 3 members under clause (h) in all Taluqs except Seringapatam has expired, the term of office of the two others under clause (h) can not be considered to have expired since their appointments were made & published only last year in consequence of increasing the ex-officio part of the Constitution by the addition of the Sub-Registrar

5 The appointment of 2 additional members for each Taluq Board was notified in No 11865/Dis 450-05-2 dated 16.5.1906 So in the case of members appointed under clause

8 From 9. The President, District Board, Mysore N°843 dated 30.5.07.
Reports that the additional members for each Taluq appointed in accordance with G.P.N° J: 2755-65 Regis 7-8 dated 29th March 1905 were considered to hold office for the residue of the term of the original members

10. It is not ~~known~~ clear whether the members to be appointed under clauses (E) and (F) of para 7 of the L.B. rules have been duly elected.

11. The members under clauses (E) and (F) are to be appointed by Government in default of election

The heading of the list ~~shows~~ indicates that the it shows members (nominated & elected) Submitted for orders as to whether the list may be published or the President be asked to take steps for duly electing members if he has not done so already.

12. It is clear from the list sent up by the President that ~~such~~ of the Members as have to be elected under the Rules have been so elected. Perhaps a draft letter re: the reconstitution of the several Boards.

Coonoor

It will be seen therefrom that the expiry of the term in their case also is not very far off. But considering that it will be more convenient for electing members of the Taluk Boards to the District Board of the Taluk Boards are constituted at one and the same time, I beg to submit herewith for approval and publication in the Gazette, a list shewing the names of members who will constitute the several Taluk Boards in this District. In the case of the members of Periyapatam and Hunsur Taluk Boards, their term of office will expire on the 2nd June 1907. By the arrangement now proposed, the period of their term of office as fixed by Govt in the Rules will be reduced by a few days which may be overlooked considering the advantage, such a proposal is calculated to confer on the District Board in the matter of the Constitution

No. 1256-63—L. B. 90-06-10, DATED BANGALORE, 8TH AUGUST 1907.

ORDER.—Government observe that the term of office of the members of the several Taluk Boards in each district varies with each Taluk Board inasmuch as according to Rule 17 of the rules framed under the Local Boards Regulation, the date of commencement of the term in each case is the date of the Gazette in which the names of the members shall have been notified. But as it is desirable that the term of office in the case of members of the several Taluk Boards in each district should commence and terminate simultaneously at the beginning or end of an official year, the Presidents of the District Boards are requested to consider at the first meeting in January in what cases the terms of office of members expire in the course of the year and take the necessary timely steps for supplying their places when they may become vacant so that the nominations of new members may be notified early in July.
